DON'T BE A VICTIM OF A SCAM ARTIST

Every year, seniors lose thousands of dollars responding to telemarketing calls selling a variety of products, worthless services, and overvalued or risky investments. The most common scams involve:

- advance fee loans
- business opportunities
- real estate
- magazine sales
- credit card offers
- pay-per-call services
- magazine sales
- prizes/sweepstakes

If a salesperson on the other end of the phone offers you products or services that sound too good to be true, be skeptical. Here are some tips to help you avoid scams:

- ◆ Never disclose your credit card, bank account, or Social Security numbers to someone who contacts you by telephone or internet
- ◆ Ask detailed questions about its products or services.
- ◆ Do research on the company.
- ◆ Call 1-888-5OPT-OUT to have your name removed from consumer lists provided to telemarketers.
- ◆ Take your time in making decisions and don't be afraid to hang up.
